

Dialogues

1. Dialogue between a teacher and a student on coming late school.

Student: May i come in, sir?

Teacher: Yes, stand here. Why do you always come late?

Student: Sir It is the bus which makes me late.

Teacher: What time do you leave home?

Student: I always leave home at quarter to eight.

Teacher: How far is your home from here?

Student: It is about three kilometers from here.

Teacher: That is why you get late. You leave your home very late.

Student: Sir, I take my breakfast at 7:30 a.m.

Teacher: What time do you get up?

Student: I get up at about 7:00 a.m.

Teacher: Don't you offer your prayer?

Student: Not regularly.

Teacher: My dear. It is a bad habit. Change your routine. Always get up early in the morning. Offer your prayers and go for a morning walk.

Student: Sir, there is no park near our home.

Teacher: No problem. You can walk along the street in the morning time. Take breakfast at right time and then leave for school.

Student: You are right, sir. From tomorrow, I shall never be late.

Teacher: Good. One thing more keeps in mind. Regularity and punctuality conquer the mountains.

Student: Thank you very much for your good advice. Can I sit now, sir?

Teacher: Oh Yes, of course.

2. Dialogue between two students regarding prayers.

A: Good morning, Waseem.

B: Good morning, Saim. Where are you going?

A: I'm going to mosque to offer my prayers. It is morning prayer time. What about you?

B: I am going to garden for a morning walk.

A: Don't you offer your prayers?

B: I do sometimes but not regularly.

A: It is very bad. Man must offer his prayers regularly. You know man finds real Peace and comfort only in prayers.

B: I know but it is just laziness.

A: I always prefer prayer. I offer my prayers five times a day. If I miss my prayers, I get disturbed.

B: That is a good thing. I will also try.

A: You must make up your mind to offer your prayers. If a person shuns his prayers accidentally on purpose, it is a great sin.

B: If someone is busy at prayer time then?

A: He should stop his business and offer his prayers.

B: You are right.

A: When man offers his prayers, his life improves. He lives neat and clean life. Everybody respects him.

B: From today, I will also offer my prayers five times a day.

A: That's very good. We are getting late. Let's go and offer our prayer first.

B: Let's go.

3. Dialogue asking one's way.

A: Asslam-o-Alakum

B: Wa Aalkum-us-Slam.

A: Sir, can you tell me the way to the hospital?

B: Certainly. Keep straight on along this road. It will lead you to a red-brick building. That is the hospital.

A: Thank you very much for this kindness.

B: OK! All right.

A: Pardon me Sir Am I right for the hospital.

B: Yes dear! Keep straight this way for about 2 kilometers.

A: May I hire a van?

B: Yes, take wagon No. 7. it will drop you at the main gate of the hospital.

A: Thank you very much.

4. Dialogue concerning time between a brother and a sister.

Brother: What is the time?

Sister: It is half past eight.

Brother: Oh, we are getting late.

Sister: We are not late. The train will leave at nine.

Brother: So what? We have only half an hour to reach the station.

Sister: Do not worry, brother. We will reach there in ten minutes.

Brother: No, sometimes the traffic is blocked.

- Sister: It is early in the morning. There is no rush of traffic at this time.
- Brother: No, you are wrong. The children go to school at this time. So, there is a great rush of traffic on the road at this time.
- Sister: Do not worry, today is a holiday.
- Brother: Oh, I see. I forgot that today is Sunday. Anyway, you should hurry up.
- Sister: I am ready. Take this bag. Let us go. They go out.

5. Dialogue between a tailor and a customer.

- Tailor: Good morning, sir. What can I do for you?
- Customer: I want to look at some cloth for a suit.
- Tailor: Certainly, sir. Any particular colour?
- Customer: Yes, I want a dark brown.
- Tailor: Is it for lounge suit, sir?
- Customer: An ordinary lounge suit, like I am wearing now.
- Tailor: Here is a very nice cloth, sir. Which wears well and looks neat.
- Customer: Yes, it looks nice. But it is rather heavy. Haven't you anything lighter?
- Tailor: Yes sir, here is a very nice staff. It is a little more expensive but it is worth extra money.
- Customer: What is the price?
- Tailor: Rs.1000 a yard-double width.
- Customer: How much should I require for a suit?
- Tailor: Four yards will be ample. That should be Rs. 700 for the sui length.
- Customer: And what do you charge for making?
- Tailor: Rs. 1000, sir and Rs. 200 for lining, buttons, etc.
- Customer: I see. Rs. 800 altogether. I think I will take it.
- Tailor: Very good, sir. I will take you measurements... sir. Can you come for a try on next Monday. Thank you
- Customer: Let me see. I am afraid Monday will be awkward. Shall we say Tuesday?
- Tailor: Very good, sir. It will be ready for you on Tuesday. Is there anything else I can do for you? Shirts? Ties? Vests? Stockings?
- Customer: No. I think not; thank you. Bye! Tailor: Goodbye, sir and thank you.
