Q 1: Why did the nurse ask Hira's sister to come and talk to her?

Ans: It was because the nurse thought that the voice of near and dear one might activate the nearly dead neurons.

Q 2: Why did the nurse disagree with the doctor's point of view?

Ans: The nurse disagreed with the doctor's point of view because she was hopeful about the recovery of the patient.

Q 3: Why did the nurse ask herself the question: "Was it worthwhile to oppose and fight the decision of senior and more qualified surgeons"?

Ans: She asked herself this question to reconsider her judgment about the patient.

Q 4: Describe some qualities of the personality of the nurse in the story?

Ans: She was wise, honest, sincere, dutiful, kind hearted and ambitious. She had positive thinking and strong will power.

Q 5: Why did the nurse say: "Where there is will there is way"?

Ans: The nurse was much pleased on the recovery of her hopeless patient. So she said "where there is will there is way".
