We see a kind of milk in tins. It is powdered milk. All the water in this milk is evaporated. When fresh milk stays in a dish for a little time, the thick part of the milk comes to the top. It is the cream of the milk. From this cream people make butter. If milk with the cream on it is made into powder, it is called 'Full Cream Milk Powder'. When something floating is taken off from the top of a liquid, we say, it is skimmed. When the cream is skimmed from the milk, the thin milk that stays is called 'Skim Milk'. Skim milk is good milk but it has no fat in it. It is not good for very young babies.

Questions: i. What becomes of the water in the milk?

7. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given at the end.

Newspapers keep us constantly in touch with the whole of mankind. In olden days, a man's world consisted of his own village and one or two neighbouring villages. It was difficult for him to know what was going on in other parts of the country. But today the press assisted by rapid means of communications brings us news from the farthest corners of the globe. The press is also responsible for educating public opinion. The laws of a nation are really shaped by its press. In fact the public receives guidance from the newspapers. Thus their power in modern times is undeniable.

QUESTIONS

- What good do the newspapers do to us?
- Why in olden days man could not know what was going on in far off places?
- What is the responsibility of the press today?
- How are the laws of a country shaped nowadays?
- How are newspapers a source of public guidance?

Musa was in chief command and the gates were in his charge. They had been barred when the Christian came in view; but Musa threw them open. "Our bodies," he said, "will bar the gates." The young men were kindled by such words and when he told them "We have nothing to fight for but the ground we stand on and without that we are without a home or a country" they were ready to die with him. With such a leader, the Moorish cavaliers performed feats of bravery in the plain which divided the camp from the city.
