Newspapers do not require us to sit at a place and read the news. Busy people may read the papers anytime of the day. They may read the news that is important to them early in the morning, and carry the paper with them to read in the bus or van. They may also choose to omit certain aspects of the news that they are not interested in. Television, on the other hand, requires its viewers to be at a certain place, at a certain time in order to watch and listen to the news.
